Michael Carr Designs™

Wow, what a whirlwind we find ourselves in!

We, at Michael Carr Designs are so thankful for you, our partners and customers. We are so appreciative. We, in the garden business, are so blessed to be in a market that is appreciated and in demand in these unique times.

I have twisted the old adage "Feast or Famine" into my own description of today's garden environment "Feast AND Famine". The demand is super incredible to go along with worldwide shipping and supply issues creating shortages and delays. In my more than 20 years in this business, there has never been such turmoil in the shipping channels and the freight experts are predicting that the situation will continue into this year. Rather than complain about it, we are working on hopeful solutions to better meet your needs. I do take some pride in creating such a wide range of offering in styles, colors, finishes, and sizes to offer to you for your business. This year is no different.

Like every season, this year's catalog is filled with NEW selections. This year's catalog includes almost 500 outdoor pottery pallet collections to go along with our indoor line, Old-World Statuary Line and Resin Figurines. In order to combat issues that arose this past season with shipping goods, I have targeted our best sellers and Best of the Best collections and pre-ordered massive amounts of these products and have already begun production for next season.

They will be marked on each page of the categories with Silver "Top Sellers"  and Gold "Best of the Best"  emblems. These indicate orders already placed and in production. It is my plan that these will help in getting products early or on schedule. With that being said, you are still welcome to order anything in the catalog through the end of August. The plan, as always, is to ship all of this on time together. But given the current environment the collections not already pre-ordered may or may not be shipped at the same time, depending on your desired receiving date and the situation with world shipping.

It would be my suggestion to please order early to get production started on your requests.

I haven't highly publicized this, but we have begun building brand awareness to our and your retail customers. Quite frankly, until recently, we tried to stay away from this area as it was difficult to handle so many requests from retail customers contacting and asking questions about the brand and where to find it. It was overwhelming and we weren't set up to handle it. But we now have pivoted with a new dealer locator on our web site and mechanisms in place to push these requests straight to local garden centers. With that in place, we have begun doing some very exciting things. Michael Carr Designs products were featured on HGTV's Rock the Block, including the winning outdoor category with Nate Berkus and Jeremiah Brent with Michael Carr Designs pieces prominently displayed in the whole show. I co-hosted two ½ hour nationally broadcast garden shows on over 400 PBS stations this past year. This show is called GardenSmart. In its 20th season, it featured how garden pots are made and how to use them in the home and landscape. Viewed by almost 2 million people in each premier, it was a wonderful way to teach and educate people on container gardening and HOPEFULLY, Michael Carr Designs. We are expanding our focus on social media and already have several major projects and collaborations set up this season that will continue to build the brand in our market. We are very excited about what is coming soon!

I want to wish you the best success in what you are doing and looking forward to being a small part of it with you!

Talented Workmanship & Unique Glazes

One of the things that makes our line of garden pottery special is that each piece is hand-made. Each piece starts with a talented craftsman taking clay and pushing it into a mold by hand. After an initial drying, they remove it with their hands and tirelessly work to smooth each seam and each design element out to give it the sleek shape that you see in each finished product. It is dried once again and liquid glazes are applied to the pots by hand. The pots are then moved to the kiln where it is set up to fire.

Inside the rustic old world wood burning kilns, heat will circulate throughout the pieces inside. The heat inside varies slightly from spot to spot. The heat combined with the unique glazes are what creates the colors and runs of the glazes. These slight variations in temperature are what give each piece its own unique finish. This is how customers get that one of a kind look with each piece.

We are also using more and more cutting edge kiln technologies. We do this in order to achieve more consistency in colors and can actually create new colors now achievable with varying temperatures in wood burning kilns. Using the best scenarios in each type of kiln we can achieve the best quality and styling.

CARING FOR YOUR POTTERY

Freeze & Frost Resistant

Select pieces within our collection are designed to be freeze and frost resistant. Look for the icon denoting planters that can tolerate colder temperatures. But I feel there needs to be a better explanation as to what terms such as frost resistant or freeze resistant mean. You see these terms on almost all outdoor pots from almost all vendors. But in order to better educate your customers, I want to go into more depth with this. Our pots are some of the best in the world at holding up in harsh climates. However, each category has different ranges. The first thing to note is that "frost" or "freeze" is technically 32 degrees. And practically, every outdoor pot can withstand that. So, basically, any vendor could apply these terms to their outdoor planters.

The first thing to note is that pots that are frost or freeze resistant are referring to the pot itself. Not the soil or plant or anything inside the pot. When someone plants up a pot with soil and moisture is in the soil, you then have the potential of a lot of expansion going on inside the pot in freezing temperatures. When water expands it is a very powerful force. With nowhere to go, this expansion could create enough pressure to cause the best pieces in the world to crack. I always use the example of rocks high on mountains. They crack when water gets in cracks and crevices and freezes and thaws over time. So, it's imperative to educate customers on ways to protect a planted pot that will be exposed to extreme temperature. Some suggestions would be to lift it up off the ground (pot feet, etc.) to allow moisture to drain from the pot over the winter, cover the pots to keep moisture from building up in winter, put materials in the soil that might absorb the expansion pressure, such as empty water bottles, bubble wrap, etc.

Freezing damage to the pots themselves, which are not planted, is normally due to moisture getting inside the pores of the material that the product is made from. The smaller the pores the less likely any moisture can accumulate inside the material that makes the pot itself. The hotter and longer a planter has been fired, the smaller the pores of the piece are. For example, I started out in this business making Mexican clay pots. At that time, the Mexican clay was cooked at 900 degrees for 8 hours. In contrast, our Vietnamese Clay is fired as high as 2300 degrees for several days! I consider our Vietnamese the best cooked planters in the world at holding up in extreme weather.

Terracotta can withstand 32 degrees, however, if it goes much lower and the pieces are on the ground where they will begin to absorb moisture through the bottom, they are much more susceptible to flaking and peeling on the exterior due to the moisture now inside the pores of the piece expanding and contracting.

Cement pots are not fired, so in order to make these pieces more frost resistant, other methods are used to close up the pores and reduce moisture soaking into the pieces. One is to use the best cement materials. Another is to use methods to shake and stir the pieces so that there are not pockets in the material that allow moisture to get in.

With terracotta and cement, I recommend getting these pieces off the ground to not allow them to sit in moisture over time. I personally use pot feet but I'm sure there are other methods as well.

Then we have our Vietnamese natural clay and our special applied glazes. As stated before, they are cooked at extremely high temperatures for extended periods of time, making them, in my opinion, the best in the world at holding up in harsh weather.

All pieces are great and hopefully, will be enjoyed for many years, but I believe it's important to educate your customers on how to care for each.

Volcanic Collection

Volcanic Collection

Our Volcanic Collection combines the best of the Vietnamese clays with a combination of glazes and our special hand-added recipe of our volcanic finish. Depending how we apply the finish and how we sand it down, it has the appearance of a glazed piece with a top edge partially lava encrusted or a piece completely lava encrusted with the glaze finish coming through to give very rich colors. This is a very popular category and has fantastic sell-throughs.

The whole collection consists of winners. We have added 4 new colors to our super popular VOB014 series this year. These are Volcanic on Matte Honey, Volcanic on Black, Volcanic on Falling Blue and Volcanic on Red.

Please look for our silver Top Sellers  and Gold Best of the Best  symbols for quicker deliveries.

Vietnamese Glazed Collection

Vietnamese Glazed Collection

Glazed planters continue to remain one of the hottest categories in the planter business. Our Vietnamese glazes have the finest finishes in the market! We carefully select the best of the best when they are taken out of the traditional wood fired kilns, as well as new state-of-the-art super-sized gas kilns. They are fired for up to eight days at temperatures reaching up to 2300 degrees. This firing process makes our pieces some of the most weather resistant planters in the world. The pieces that don't meet our strict criteria find their way to other sources which may bring to them to market as number one quality pieces. You want the best, so we set our standards high! Our glaze recipes are kept locked up and once you see our pieces, you will understand why. We keep them special for you.

Our Vietnamese glazes are 100% hand-made and applied. The temperatures inside the kilns will vary from spot to spot. This variation in the temperature is what gives each piece its own unique color and finish. This uniqueness is what makes the demand for these pieces so great. Each piece is its own work of art. No two are the same.

AQUAPOTS™

by PROVEN WINNERS®

THE AQUAPOTS® SOLUTION

Developed by Award-Winning Landscape Architect Jack Barnwell

As an industry professional, you're looking to offer unique, profitable solutions that set your business apart. AquaPots self-watering containers deliver just that. Your customers will be amazed how simple it can be to enhance their outdoor living spaces using one of a kind AquaPots. They will love the look of the lush, vibrant plantings, not to mention the time and hassle saved in watering.

A Stylish Solution That Really Works

AquaPots are an exceptional, patent pending concept in self-watering containers invented by award-winning landscape architect Jack Barnwell of Barnwell Landscape and Garden. As an avid user of Michael Carr Designs Pottery, Barnwell saw the need for gorgeous, commercial grade, self-watering containers for the variety of properties he services across the country. He worked with Michael Carr to develop this stylish yet practical solution for his clients.

Debuting in Spring 2020, AquaPots are the first and only premium quality glazed ceramic self-watering pots on the market. They are not an insert but rather a complete system that is integrated right into each container. AquaPots are handcrafted by artisans at Michael Carr Designs Pottery of Vietnam, a favorite luxury brand among home gardeners. The pots are crafted using time tested techniques and an old-world kiln that gives each piece its own special character.

Brought to You by Proven Winners®

The same brand that brought you some of your best selling plants like 'Limelight' hydrangeas, Wine & Roses® weigela and Supertunia Vista® Bubblegum petunias has entered into the pottery market with the debut of AquaPots. Premium quality pottery is a natural extension of the brand. The goal of Proven Winners remains consistent across all product lines – to bring beautiful, high performance solutions to market.

KEY BENEFITS OF AQUAPOTS™

Smart. Stylish. Sensational.

AquaPots® by Proven Winners® Collection

We at Michael Carr Designs are excited to, once again, be teaming up with award winning landscape architect, Jack Barnwell, to design and manufacture AquaPots by Proven Winners. AquaPots by Proven Winners are an exceptional, patent pending concept in self-watering containers invented by Jack Barnwell of C-3 Gardens and Barnwell Landscape and Garden. As an avid user of Michael Carr Designs planters in his businesses, Jack teamed up with Michael to produce the best and highest quality pieces in the market to match up with his drive to bring to market a product that guarantees successful gardens with low maintenance.

This product is a game changer in making gardeners successful. AquaPots are the first and only premium quality glazed ceramic self-watering pots on the market. This is a revolutionary product that brings a successful yet simple, easy to use process to high design ceramic planters! They are not an insert, but rather a complete system that is integrated right into each container. AquaPots are handcrafted by artisans at Michael Carr Designs, a favorite luxury brand among home gardeners and landscapers. The pieces are crafted using time tested techniques to give each piece its own special character.

Introduced in the summer of 2020, demand for AquaPots by Proven Winners swept across the US and Canada. We are very excited about introducing many new designs and colors to the AquaPots line this year.

Liconfiber Collection

We continually look to add to our distinctive and stylish designs in our Liconfiber. Liconfiber, made up of a special light cement product and reinforced with fiberglass netting gives an ability to create some truly remarkable pieces. Even with a close-up look, you will still not believe you are looking at a cement product but know you are getting that kind of durability with a lighter than normal weight. I think you will find our new "Seagrass" line to be amazing.

Indoor Pottery Collection

This is a category bursting with COLOR! This is a really fun category! The pots represented in this category create beautiful walls of color and color combinations that really draw attention. In the following pages you will find more than 45 different colors! We have cache pots as well as pots with attached saucers. We have decor, small indoor planters, self-watering planters, bonsai pots and orchid pots. I hope you are able to find whatever you need to fill your customers' desires.

While this category continues to excel with sales and re-orders throughout the year, we are really excited about the new additions. We have added a more modern look with exciting matte colors. The sizes range from 3 inches to over 6 inches. We have updated our extremely successful line of orchid pots, self-watering and bonsai planters to include some of our newest colors. We hope you will enjoy this line as much as we do.

These do need to be protected from extreme outside weather to ensure long lasting enjoyment.

In Honor & Loving Memory of Gerald Carr

Gnomes have been around well over a hundred years. I had been asked many times to create a line of gnomes. But in most cases I really wanted to create something different and unique. There seem to be many descriptions of gnomes. I choose to believe they are gentle woodland creatures that protect your garden and the Earth's treasures. They make your garden more enjoyable. So, when developing this line and trying to give a basic gnome a new look, I went to where this definition took me. That was to my dad, Gerald Carr. He taught me to appreciate all of God's Creations. My memories take me far back to being outdoors with my dad. He would walk us in the woods, pointing out each tree and what it was called. Pointing out the beautiful colors of the leaves. He would reach down pulling soil from the earth and talk about how "rich" it was as it ran through his fingers. Sometimes we would just sit in a field looking in awe of our beautiful surroundings. I learned to appreciate this beautiful creation from my dad. So, when thinking of an image to create a gnome to match my definition, he is what I saw. I sculpted his likeness and added the beard and red hat and named him Garrold. Since losing my dad I miss him terribly, but this gnome, along with so many sweet memories, serves as a gentle reminder of the love he had for God's creation, and the love he had for me.
